

Gracelife Global May 2026 Bible Study

Theme:

I am living in the fullness of His Word

Week One

We must first of all see the Word of God as an atmosphere where we abide, dwell and remain. Let us look at the following Bible verses: John 15:7, Colossians 3:16 and Psalm 1:2-3.

Living in the fullness of the Word begins with abiding, not visiting. Jesus didn't say, "Read My words." He said, "Let My words remain in you."

To abide means:

The Word becomes your internal climate

Your thoughts are shaped by Scripture

Your reactions are governed by truth

Your decisions flow from revelation

The early church "continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine" Acts 2:42. They didn't dip in and out but they lived in the Word.

Now let us ask ourselves the following questions:

- ❖ What does it practically look like for the Word to “dwell richly” in you?
- ❖ Which voices compete with the Word for dominance in your mind?
- ❖ What would change if Scripture became your first response instead of your last?

We must also make the Word of God our identity i.e. becoming what God has spoken. Let us read the following Bible verses: James 1:22-25, 2 Corinthians 3:18 and Psalm 119:11.

Fullness means the Word defines your identity more than:

-  your past
-  your trauma
-  your upbringing
-  your personality
-  your failures

The Word reveals who you are, not who you were. Gideon saw himself as weak but God called him “mighty man of valor” (Judges 6:12). Identity shifts when the Word becomes your mirror.

Ask yourself these questions:

Ask yourself these questions:

- ❖ What identity statements from Scripture do you struggle to believe?
- ❖ What labels have you accepted that God never gave you?
- ❖ How does beholding the Word transform your self-perception?

Assignment for the Week

- ❖ Write 5 identity truths from Scripture and speak them daily.
- ❖ Choose one passage and meditate on it morning and night for 7 days.
- ❖ Let it shape your thinking until it becomes instinct.

Week Two

We must make the Word our strategy by always making scripture driven decisions. Let's look at these Bible verses: Psalm 119:105, Proverbs 3:5-6 and Joshua 1:8.

The Word is not only spiritual; it is strategic intelligence. Joshua didn't conquer Canaan by military genius. He conquered by obedience to the Word.

The Word gives:

- clarity
- direction
- discernment
- boundaries
- wisdom

grace life

David inquired of the Lord before every major decision (1 Samuel 23:2, 30:8). He didn't move without divine instruction.

Ask yourself these questions:

- ❖ What decisions have you made without consulting Scripture?
- ❖ Where has your life suffered because you followed feelings instead of the Word?
- ❖ What would your leadership look like if Scripture guided every major choice?

The Word has power when we obey it and we can see this in Hebrews 4:12, Matthew 7:24-27 and John 2:5. The Word becomes powerful when obeyed, not when admired.

Obedience is the bridge between:

- ❖ revelation → manifestation
- ❖ promise → fulfillment
- ❖ prophecy → reality

Peter didn't catch fish because he was skilled. He caught fish because he obeyed: "At Your word, I will let down the nets." (Luke 5:5) Miracles follow obedience.

Ask yourself these questions:

- ❓ What instruction from God have you delayed obeying?
- ❓ What excuses have you used to avoid obedience?
- ❓ What breakthrough is waiting on your obedience?

Assignment for the week:

- ✅ Identify one instruction you've postponed.
- ✅ Obey it this week; immediately.
- ✅ Take one current decision and intentionally apply a biblical principle to it.

Week Three

There is fullness in the word of God and we can apply it daily to our lives and that's what Colossians 3:16, Galatians 5:16 and Psalm 119:130 are telling us.

Fullness means the Word becomes:

- ✓ your lifestyle
- ✓ your language
- ✓ your habits
- ✓ your reactions
- ✓ your leadership
- ✓ your worldview

People should see the Word in you without you quoting it. Jesus didn't just speak the Word; He was the Word made flesh (John 1:14).

Fullness means Scripture becomes embodied in your:

- ✓ character
- ✓ decisions
- ✓ relationships
- ✓ work ethic
- ✓ integrity
- ✓ excellence

Ask yourself these questions:

- ✓ What habits in your life contradict the Word you believe?
- ✓ How can you create an environment where the Word thrives in you?
- ✓ What would your life look like if Scripture governed your daily routines?

Human efforts alone i.e. what the Bible calls bread cannot sustain your destiny as a believer. Let us read Matthew 4:4, Deuteronomy 8:3 and Psalm 127:1–2.

BREAD vs. THE WORD: A LESSON IN DEPENDENCE

WHAT BREAD REPRESENTS

- Human effort & natural ability
- Credentials, systems, & logic
- Predictability & comfort
- Sustains the body, NOT destiny

THE TRAP OF SELF-SUFFICIENCY

- Powered by human strength = Pressure & Anxiety
- Human effort opens doors; Only God keeps them open
- Human effort builds a career; Only God builds a legacy

ISRAEL'S WILDERNESS LESSON

God withheld predictable supply to teach dependence, humility, & trust. He dismantled their “bread system” to rebuild their “Word system”.

SIGNS OF “BREAD ALONE” LIVING

Anxiety rooted in self-dependence

Pressure to perform

Over-reliance on logic

Inability to rest

Prayer becoming an afterthought

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Where do you see signs of “bread-alone living” in your life?

What would shift if you trusted God’s voice more than your effort?

WEEKLY ASSIGNMENT

Replace one daily habit with a Word-centered practice (e.g., morning meditation, Scripture journaling, declarations).

WEEK FOUR

LIVING BY EVERY WORD

We must live by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God i.e. the ongoing revelation of the Word...

THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING WORD

Jesus did not say "by every word that proceeded. proceeds." This is sustained not only by what God said, but by what saying i.e. His active, present, living voice.

THE PROCEEDING WORD IN DAILY LIFE

It is Scripture illuminated, God's active instruction, divine nudges, inner conviction, and season-specific direction.

BREAD VS. WORD

Bread = human capacity, predictable,
limited

Word =
divine supply, with supernatural, unlimited

Case Studies of the Proceeding Word

Case Studies of the Proceeding Word

- ❖ Elijah at Cherith
- ❖ Peter walking on “Come”
- ❖ Mary conceiving by the Word

Ask yourself these questions:

- ❖ What is God saying to you in this season?
- ❖ Where have you been relying on yesterday’s manna?

God wants us through His word to move from self-sourced living to God sourced living. Let us read Philippians 4:19, 2 Corinthians 9:8 and Psalm 23:1.

What is Divine supply? Human supply is linear; divine supply is limitless. God supplies through miracles, favor, people, ideas, timing, and opportunities.

We must also understand the Kingdom supply chain. The world says, “Work harder.” The Kingdom says, “Align deeper.” Provision is always waiting at the place of instruction.

What happens when God is your Source?

Stress reduces, faith increases, doors open, opportunities locate you, and you begin to attract what others chase.

We have several examples of this from the Bible:

The Widow's Oil

Isaac sowing in famine

The five loaves and two fish

Ask yourself these questions:

Where have you acted like your own provider?

What area of your life needs divine sourcing?

Assignment for the Week

- ❖ Start consciously living on God's word
- ❖ Focus on one scripture weekly
- ❖ Make God your Source

Assignment for the Week

Start consciously living on God's word

Start consciously living on God's word

Focus on one scripture weekly

Make God your Source

Week Five

Our goal which God desires and expects from us is to live a supernatural life in a natural world. This means we must always walk in revelation, alignment and Spirit led living. Let us read:

 Romans 8:14
 Galatians 5:25
 Isaiah 11:2

How do you live beyond bread? To live beyond bread is to live above human calculations, self-reliance, limitations, and logic-only decisions. It is to live by divine intelligence.

What are the signs that you are living a revelation driven life? Bold obedience, peace in storms, unusual results, clear direction, grace under pressure, rest in uncertainty, and discernment.

You must depend on the Holy Spirit as He interprets instruction, reveals timing, gives strategy, empowers action, multiplies results, warns, redirects, and keeps you sensitive.

Jesus' response to Satan. Jesus refused to turn stones into bread because He refused to operate outside revelation. He lived by instruction, not pressure.

Ask yourself the following questions:

- What does a revelation-powered life look like for you?
- Where do you need to surrender control?

God's word is power. Not that it contains power; it is power and that's why Jesus called it Spirit and Life. The following verses show us that God's word is power.

 John 6:63

 Hebrews 4:12

 Jeremiah 15:16

 Psalm 119:105

The Word Is Spirit. Jesus said, "The words I speak to you, they are spirit." This means the Word carries divine essence, supernatural intelligence, and spiritual energy. It is not mere information; it is impartation.

The Word Is Life. He also said and that they are life." The Word quickens, revives, energizes, strengthens, and sustains. It brings healing, direction, transformation, and responses. It brings healing, direction, transformation, and renewal.

The Word Creates What It Commands. God's Word is creative. It does not describe reality; it shapes it. When God's creation responds.

The Word Transforms the Believer

- It renews the mind
- It strengthens the spirit
- It aligns the heart
- It empowers obedience
- It produces fruit

The Word as Daily Bread. Just as manna was daily, the proceeding Word is daily. Yesterday's Word cannot sustain today's battles. Fresh bread is required for fresh seasons.

Ask yourself these questions: ❓

- How has God's Word brought life to you recently?
- What areas of your life need the quickening power of the Word?

Prayer Points for the week: 🙏

- "Lord, let Your Word come alive in me."
- "Quicken my spirit by Your Word."
- "Let Your Word shape my decisions, desires, and destiny."
